

had been selected had ceased.

It is not necessary to account to you what has been done but I have seen many of the influential people and many of the manufacturers.

The Board is in excellent mood today. I have just heard nearly a hundred of the residents, the good towns of Aberdeen had fallen into they felt that in a far more long in a far more country they had not performed their duty in giving that substantial support to the Rock. which form the amount of population and their good feeling they say W.L. have done - they have unanimously advised that after an address to the fell our towns men. the whole town and neighborhood shall be crowned personally by the members of the Committee and Sir M. Bance, the Board. Judge Mr. P. M. A. and the Messrs, have come forward each to take their share of the duty - many in the town are already prepared to send them in support.
