

Mr. Peto is favorable to the plan, but wishes to have a couple of days to consider of it - Mr. Brunel is sure of getting 10,000 £ - & Mr. Barley believes that he could get several names from Manchester - In the meantime Mr. Pusey spontaneously proposed to me a quadruple fund to which all members of the Commission should subscribe according to their fortunes, he (himself) putting down 1000 £
