Dear Sir

I am somewhat surprised and sorry at the trouble that seems to have been caused by my letter in the Daily News.

I shall be at home here until noon, & therefore if you will come out and breakfast here if, after 9 o'clock I shall be glad to see you and to hear any statement you have to make, as it would give me time to check the progress of the plans for the Exhibition. If you prefer to come later I shall be at home after 2 o'clock to 4, therefore make the time to your own convenience.

Remain

Yours
Signed, Joseph Hume
