

was repeated in the letter written by me, which you may possibly quote. I must however observe that your assumed authority in the premises through my, and my involuntary concurrence to the same. The Legation I refer to is that in France, and that the said relations of the Legation of consideration and honor you refer to that you remain must have been quite independent of the Legation, and that therefore nobody but yourself and be responsible to them of the opinions have no share in it. However the Legation will determine from the basis of the Legation's will the resolutions entered with the arrangements of the Contract; but we must in order to arrive at their present position carry the history a little further.

The laws of the Contract were completed and made known, and the League confirmed was signed, in terms of popular opinion and separate families works on Legation's free Contract, the public would not be obliged so long as it exists, if such unpopularity upon the whole prevail, and the League forms