

at its first meeting, before transacting any other business determined that the Contract, according to the Terms contained within itself, must be determined — indeed there may be very considerable doubts whether the Exhibition, if still carried on under ~~that~~ would have been successful.
The Rev. Mr. Munday, as the disinterested friend and supporter of the undertaking, might then have said that their object had been the success of the Exhibition; that they had shown by their
